Follow-up QAA Open Studio & Sale

In the absence of Susan Shea, Chris Smith was asked to provide an update of the event.

Chris reported that due to inclement weather, foot traffic was much lower than anticipated and resulted in fewer sales for some of the ten members who exhibited.

It was also noted that the BCC Winter Lights Night '18, which was held on the Common in early December, included a juried craft fair. With community advertising for the event, it was considerably busier. Both Chris and another QAA member who participated suggested that we might want to coordinate a future QAA Open Studio with the BCC event, if the Town Hall was available.

In summary, the QAA Open Studio provided participating members with an opportunity to gain an understanding of ways to market their art and to sell at various product/price levels.

Coming in March/QAA bus trip (to be announced at the January meeting by Deborah Sacon).

Agenda item: Treasurer's Report

Deborah Sacon reported $2,593 balance in our account.
