The complex block contains a circular mosaic artwork on the left and promotional text on the right. The mosaic is a vibrant, multi-colored piece with a central yellow and orange floral or starburst pattern, surrounded by blue and red mosaic tiles. The text on the right is in a mix of bold serif and script fonts, providing details about the presentation.

Christine Kenneally, a mosaic artist from Easthampton, Massachusetts, is fascinated with the process of building her work piece by piece from a variety of materials. She is inspired by nature and the relationships between form and pattern, and the emotion that can be conveyed by andamento. She loves to teach mosaics to adults, coaching them through the process of making a beautiful piece of art. She exhibits her work locally and regionally, and has done installations in small and large installations in public spaces, collages, small businesses, and private homes. She has led students in the design of mosaic murals. She also makes very small mosaics to wear in the form of jewelry. Christine has been teaching the art of mosaics since 2007.

Quabbin Art Association is happy to announce Christine Kenneally as our guest speaker on Thursday, February 21, 2019.

General meetings are held at the Belchertown Town Hall, 2 Jabish Street, Belchertown, Massachusetts.
